Responsibilities

We are looking for a thorough, innovative and analytical E-commerce Operations Manager to join our team in Stockholm. The ideal candidate is a sharp store manager to continue the development of our e-commerce platform, and hopefully take us to new heights.

Responsibilities will include management of e-Commerce platform (Centra) and working closely with our development agency. This manager will play a key role in both strategic direction and program implementation and will also be leading the SEO efforts and digital analytics.

Your main responsibilities will be to:

- ! Operate the e-commerce platform daily
- ! Drive sales and make sure we're displaying the right products and content based on trends, sales and marketing plan
- ! Develop and optimize the e-commerce platform, both in terms of web functions and content
- ! Create sales reports and analyse results, and based on this take appropriate actions
- ! Maintain and optimize the Odd Molly app
- ! Product management – assuring the right range and its content is available
- ! Activate new content and releases through newsletter, e-commerce and app
- ! Be the line manager for customer service staff (4 people)
- ! Trouble shoot errors and be the go to support for customer service team
- ! Drive projects that will optimize the e-commerce platform and the customer experience
- ! Be a point of contact with our storage unit
- ! Last but not least, we're looking for someone who has a humble heart who wants to become a part of the Odd Molly family
